DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claims 1, 4-13 and 16-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

The following in amended claim 1 is new matter, not present in the application as originally filed”:

...the ink receiving layer is essentially capable of absorbing ink...

...an applied ink within the polymer...

...instead of being held in pores...

...pores located in between particles...

...improving stability...

Art Unit: 1762

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 1, 4-13 and 16-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

a) Claim 1: “essentially capable”: it is not clear if the layer actually absorbs the dye or is merely capable of absorbing dye.

b) Claim 1, line 6/7: there is no antecedent basis for “the polymer”.

c) Claim 1, line 7: there is no antecedent basis for “particles”. There is no indication that particles had been coated.

d) Claim 1: “improving stability” is vague in that the basis for comparison is unclear, and it is also not defined whose stability is being referred to.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. Applicant's arguments with respect to 102 and 103 rejections have been considered, but are moot in view of the new grounds of rejection. It is noted that if the new matter is removed from the claim 1 without other amendments that avoid the prior art, rejections over EP 1060901 and KR2000-0063640 will be made.

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
